DESTINATION GUIDE

Several venues offer special discounts and some are only open during a part of the program period. You are encouraged to call them for details before planning your trip.

ADELANTO JUNCTION

The Adelanto Junction Amtrak Thruway bus stop is unstaffed, located at the Burger King at the junction of California Highway 18 and U.S. Highway 395. There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Bakersfield. Restaurant staff should not be expected to provide details of Amtrak train or Thruway bus schedules.

Please note that Amtrak Thruway bus service cannot be used solely for transportation to another Thruway stop – your trip must include travel aboard an Amtrak train (40-passenger group minimum).

For more information about attractions and special events in Adelanto, call the Chamber of Commerce at (760) 246-5711 or visit www.adelantochamber.com.

ALLENSWORTH (AG)(C)(G)(H)

Allensworth is an unstaffed conditional stop for the San Joaquins, meaning the trains will only stop to discharge and pick up groups with advance reservations. It does not have a shelter, telephone or other services, and is located about thirty miles north of Wasco. Trips cannot originate from the Allensworth stop.

Colonel Allensworth State Historic Park is a portion of the original town of Allensworth, founded in the early 1900s as a farming community for former black slaves. The preserved town site features 14 restored buildings, including a schoolhouse, a hotel, and several homes. A visitor center offers a short film about Allen Allensworth and the town he founded, and there are picnic facilities, restrooms and drinking water adjacent to the center. The town site is one of only three such sites in the United States, and the only one in the western United States. It will provide a rich cultural experience for everyone.

Rededication Day is held each year in October to renew the commitment to the park and its symbolic representation of self-determination for all African Americans in the areas of education and economic development. Activities include self-guided tours and special living history programs. Black History Month (February) and Juneteenth are also observed with special programs.

Groups are encouraged to contact Colonel Allensworth State Historic Park at (661) 849-3433 to reserve a date for a visit and to arrange a guided tour.

ANTIOCH (A)

The Antioch Amtrak station is unstaffed, located at the end of I Street in downtown Antioch close to a large fishing wharf and restaurant.

Antioch is served by Tri-Delta Transit. Call them for schedules, fares and group travel information by bus at (925) 754-4040.

The Antioch Lynn House Gallery (A), located across from the station at 809 First Street, operates on limited hours and days. It hosts new exhibits every couple of months and features a wide variety of artists, media and styles. Special appointments for group tours are also available. Visit their website at www.acfantioch.org or call (925) 779-7018.

For more information about other attractions and special events, contact the Antioch Chamber of Commerce at (925) 757-1800.

BAKERSFIELD (C)(E)(H)(S)

The Bakersfield Amtrak station is the southern terminus for San Joaquin train service. This spacious and ultra-modern station was opened July, 2000, and is located at 601 Truxtun Avenue. The station is fully staffed and Golden Empire Transit (GET), which serves the greater Bakersfield area, stops nearby. For schedules, fares and for group travel information on their system, call (661) 869-2438.

The Bakersfield Centennial Garden & Convention Center (E) is located a few blocks from the station. It is the largest and most versatile event facility in the Southern San Joaquin Valley. It features a variety of exhibits, concerts, sporting and theatrical events throughout the year. Admission fees vary with event. For information about upcoming events you can call the center at (661) 852-7777 or you may visit their website at www.centennialgarden.com.

BAKERSFIELD (Continued)

Buck Owens' Crystal Palace is a unique all-in-one museum, theatre, and restaurant located in the "Country Music Capital of the West." It focuses on the rich history and sound of country music. A great place to dine, enjoy a performance or just visit a spell! For group tour reservations, call (888) 855-5005. For more information visit www.buckowens.com.

For more information about other attractions and special events in Bakersfield, call the Convention and Visitors Bureau at (661) 325-5051 or visit their website at www.bakersfieldcvb.org.

BARSTOW

There are two Barstow Amtrak Thruway bus stops. Both are unstaffed, and there are no ticket sales. The nearest station offering these services is in Bakersfield.

One stop is located at the McDonald's at 1611 E. Main Street. Restaurant staff should not be expected to provide details of Amtrak train or Thruway bus schedules.

The other stop is at the Amtrak station, located at 685 N. First Street. This is also the site of the Harvey House Casa del Desierto.

Please note that Amtrak Thruway bus service cannot be used solely for transportation to another Thruway stop – your trip must include travel aboard an Amtrak train (40-passenger group minimum).

For more information about other attractions and special events in Barstow, call the Chamber of Commerce at (760) 256-8617 or visit their website at www.barstowchamber.com.

BURBANK

The Burbank Amtrak station is located adjacent to historic Bob Hope Burbank Airport is an unstaffed station. There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Van Nuys.

Please note that Amtrak Thruway bus service cannot be used solely for transportation to another Thruway stop – your trip must include travel aboard an Amtrak train (40-passenger group minimum).

CARPINTERIA (C)(H)(S)

The Carpinteria Amtrak station is an unstaffed station located at 475 Linden Avenue. There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Santa Barbara.

Please note that Amtrak Thruway bus service cannot be used solely for transportation to another Thruway stop – your trip must include travel aboard an Amtrak train (40-passenger group minimum).

Carpinteria State Beach is located just two blocks from the station at 5361 6th Street. It's an easy walk for a picnic lunch on the beach or just soaking up the sun. It features the finest examples of inner tidal life and is one of a few easily accessible tidal pools in California. A fee may be charged for ranger-led tours. Advanced reservations for access to the area are required. Call (805) 684-2811 for more information.

The Carpinteria Valley Historical Museum is located about 6 blocks from the station at 956 Maple Avenue. Exhibits reflect the three main cultures that settled the area: Chumash Indians, the Spanish and Mexican period, and the American pioneers. Reservations are required for groups. Call (805) 684-3112.

The Salt Marsh Nature Park is a wetlands park located about 3 blocks from the station. The entrance is at the intersection of Ash Avenue and 3rd Street. The park is home to more than 20 rare plants and animals, some of which are endangered. Docent-guided programs are available and reservations are required for tours. Call (805) 684-5405 extension 449.

Downtown Carpinteria offers the friendly charm of a small, relaxed seaside town only a block from the station. Spend the days visiting quaint antique and specialty shops, and choose from many fine restaurants. For more information about other attractions and special events, call the Chamber of Commerce at (805) 684-5479 or visit www.carpchamber.org/events.html for a calendar of events.

CORCORAN

The Corcoran Amtrak station is an unstaffed stop located at the junction of Otis and Whitley Avenues in Central Corcoran. There are no ticket sales -- the nearest station offering these services is in Hanford.

DENAIR – See TURLOCK/DENAIR

EMERYVILLE

The Emeryville Amtrak station, at 5885 Landregan Street, is across the tracks from Emeryville's Public Market, and is served by Emery-Go-Round (510) 451-3862 or www.emerygoround.com and AC Transit (510) 817-1717 or www.actransit.org. Emeryville is a staffed Amtrak station, and it is the transfer point for Amtrak motorcoaches to several San Francisco stops, including Pier 39, the Ferry Building, and the downtown theatre area. The Amtrak motorcoaches also provide direct service from Emeryville to other major San Francisco attractions, such as the zoo, De Young Museum, Golden Gate Park and Exploratorium for an additional fee. Also see the listing in this guide for San Francisco for more information about the attractions there.

Emeryville features a picturesque wharf walk and nearby park as a relaxing destination. The Public Market features ethnic foods and wares. Both are within walking distance of the station.

For more information about other attractions and special events in Emeryville, contact the Chamber of Commerce at (510) 652-5223 or visit their website at www.emeryvillechamber.com.

FILLMORE (AG)(C)(E)(H)(S)

The Fillmore Amtrak Thruway bus stop is unstaffed, located in front of the International House of Pancakes at 718 Ventura Street (junction of California Highways 23 and 126). There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Oxnard. Restaurant staff should not be expected to provide details of Amtrak train or Thruway bus schedules.

Please note that Amtrak Thruway bus service cannot be used solely for transportation to another Thruway stop – your trip must include travel aboard an Amtrak train (40-passenger group minimum).

The Fillmore & Western Railway Company features an antique full-sized train that takes passengers on an educational, historical trip back in time. During the trip, the train travels west through the 1901 trestle bridge over the seasonal Sespe River, back through a working railyard on its journey to the state run Fillmore Fish Hatchery. The State of California Fish and Wildlife Department operates the venue where literally millions of trout are grown and raised each year. Rangers demonstrate the feeding routine and occasionally a vacuum truck is seen suctioning the trout from their long, narrow canals into a truck that then transports them to local lakes and streams. Bring plenty of quarters to purchase fish food, and watch as you see a real “feeding frenzy”. Bring a sack lunch to enjoy under the trees on the grass in Central Park, which is adjacent to the railroad tracks in downtown Fillmore. An educational, informational kiosk is also in Central Park that features a video presentation on the California Condor, which are at home in the Sespe Wilderness, just north of Fillmore. Advance reservations are required for the train trip – call (805) 524-2546 or visit www.fwry.com. All aboard for fun and adventure!

For more information about attractions and special events in Fillmore, please call the Chamber of Commerce at (805) 524-0351 or visit www.fillmorechamber.org for a calendar of events.

FRESNO (A)(C)(H)(S)(T)

Located about 3 blocks from the station at 2430 Fresno Street is the historic Water Tower Visitor Center (H). It's a unique place to take a group for a field trip to learn about Fresno's history and see the inner workings of a 19th century city water tower. It is handicap accessible and admission is free. The adjacent courtyard is perfect for sack lunch dining. Reservations are required for narrated tours. For more information call (559) 237-0988.

The Fresno Metropolitan Museum is located about a fifteen-minute walk from the station at 1555 Van Ness Avenue. Works by famed illustrator Winslow Homer will be on display between March 28 and May 16, 2004. In addition to visiting science and art exhibits, the museum is the permanent location for the Saroyan

Gallery and the Reeves Exploration Center. The Saroyan Gallery is a permanent exhibit that explores the life of Fresno's William Saroyan, one of America's most extraordinary writers and winner of the Pulitzer Prize and an Academy Award. The Reeves Exploration Center features nearly 60 hands-on science stations with exhibitions on electricity, the human body, physics, color, light and sound – enough to spark the imagination of any amateur scientist. Advanced reservations are required and there is an admission fee. For group tours and more information, call (559) 441-1444 x224 or you may visit their website at www.fresnomet.org.

Arte Americas is located across the street from the Metropolitan Museum. It features a variety of creations by Hispanic artists. Advanced reservations are required for tours and there is an admission fee. For more information call (559) 266-2623.

The Potter's Studio is a working pottery factory and gallery located across from the station. The studio manufactures pottery of all sizes for worldwide markets. Guided tours feature a demonstration of pottery making, including a visit to a walk-in kiln. An admission fee is charged and advanced reservations are required. Call (559) 266-5508.

Across the street from the Potter's Studio is the Meux Home Museum, a Victorian home built in 1889 by Dr. T.R. Meux. It has been restored with furnishings and equipment that depict early Fresno family life. The museum is only open for group tours during weekdays with advanced reservations and there is an admission fee. Picnic facilities are available. Call (559) 233-8007 for more information.

The Fresno Grizzlies, minor league team for the San Francisco Giants, provide big-league baseball fun at a small cost. The downtown stadium is roomy, yet every seat puts you close to the game! For tickets, schedules and general information call (559) 442-1994 or visit www.fresnogrizzlies.com.

The Foretiere Underground Gardens began in 1906 when Baldasare Foretiere, using only hand tools, set out to create a fantastic underground retreat. Forty years later he had sculpted a two-bedroom home with a kitchen and library, plus many grottos, patios, a fishpond and a walk-under aquarium – all adorned with exotic fruit trees and grapevines. This is not to be missed! For more information call (559) 229-8287 or visit www.undergroundgardens.com.

For information about accommodations, other attractions and special events, contact the Water Tower Visitor Center at (559) 237-0988, or visit www.fresnocvb.org.

SACRAMENTO (A)(AG)(C)(E)(G)(H)(S)(T)

The Sacramento Amtrak Station is fully staffed and is located in the former Southern Pacific Railroad Terminal Building at 4th and I Streets in downtown Sacramento. It is only a short walk to Old Sacramento. Sacramento is served by an extensive public transportation system. Regional Transit (RT) provides bus and light rail service in the city and to surrounding areas. Call them for schedules, fares and for group travel information on their system at (916) 321-2877.

Westfield Downtown Plaza, a great two-level open-air and covered shopping center, is about 3 blocks from the station. It offers a relaxing and beautiful way to shop, with more than 100 stores and a variety of restaurants featuring everything from take-out to formal dining.

About a one-block walk from the Sacramento Amtrak station is Old Sacramento, home to a number of museums and attractions. Among them are:

- The California State Railroad Museum, featuring one of the nation's finest interpretive exhibits of railroad history, with locomotives and railroad cars, displays and hands-on activities. Guided tours are available and there is an admission fee. Call the museum for more information about special exhibits and programs at (916) 322-8485 or visit www.csrnf.org.
- Adjacent to the railroad museum is the Discovery Museum, located in a replica of the 1854 Sacramento City Hall and Waterworks. Artifacts, information technology, hands-on exhibits and demonstrations all come together to help in exploring and discovering the past, present and future. Probe the inner workings of computers at hands-on stations in the exhibition "Computers: Bits and Pieces." Hear the clanks, whirs and hums of farm equipment in motion at the Agricultural Technology Gallery. Walk through the ages to discover the everyday life of people in the Sacramento region, from historic Indian times, through the lavish Victorian period, to the aviation and space industries of today. There is an admission fee. Guided tours are available and advanced reservations are required. Call (916) 575-3941.
- About three blocks away at the other end of Old Sacramento is the California Military Museum, located at 1119 Second Street. It is home to more than 30,000 artifacts that include weapons, uniforms, unit records, battle flags, medals and other items of historical interest. The museum's displays cover all California periods, beginning with Spanish California, the Bear Flag Republic and early statehood, and through all the major military events of California to the current day. Guided tours are available. There is a discounted group admission fee and advanced reservations are required. For more information call (916) 442-2883 or visit www.militarymuseum.org.

Be dazzled by glistening paint and chrome headlights as you hit the high road to the "Land of Dreams" at the Towe Auto Museum. Enjoy the story of the development of the automobile and the people who brought us this amazing machine. More than 150 vehicles in a variety of interpretive settings will awaken the dreamer in you. There is an admission fee. For more information, to arrange guided tours, and for the free shuttle service call (916) 442-6802.

From the station, it's about a fifteen-minute walk to the Golden State Museum: The California State History Museum at 1020 O Street. The museum offers multi-media exhibits highlighting California's history, geography and political process. Constitution Wall, in the Museum courtyard, is an ever-changing monumental public art piece reflecting the heart and beauty of California. Changing galleries host California themed art, history, or science exhibits and benefit visitors by illuminating the varied identities, distinctive lifestyles, and golden dreams that continue to shape modern California. Opened last spring, Remarkable California Women, an exhibit presented by First Lady Maria Shriver, continues through May 2005. At the end of your tour, browse the Museum Store's unique collection of California treasures. Call the museum for more information about tours, educational programs, meeting space and exhibits at (916) 653-3476 or visit their website at www.castatehistory.org.

SACRAMENTO (Continued)

From the museum, it's only a short two-block walk to the State Capitol for a self-guided tour. Some Amtrak San Joaquin motorcoaches drop off passengers at the State Capitol upon request (be sure to note this in your reservation request).

Custom-designed tours of Sacramento and the Gold Country are available from Cal Events. Tours include deluxe motorcoach transportation, hotel transfers, experienced guides, museum admissions, and meals, as needed. Walking tours of Old Sacramento are also offered. A not-to-be-missed offering for those staying overnight (or longer) is the costumed "Ghost Tours!" For more information, call (916) 684-8577 or visit their website at www.cal-events.com.

For guided tour information at the State Capitol, call (916) 324-0333.
